Why:

Earth, thou art perfect and fair; Life, thou art ea nest and sweet; Soul, thou art rightfully heir; Is not thy rapture complete? Why, from the manifold joys That hie to the morning of day, From sorrows that strengthen au Turn'st thou, expeciant, away?

I stand in the fresh morning lands; I stand in the fresh morning latter, bew stars in the gra-s at my feet; Buds and white bloom in my hands, about me sweet song puises beat, From the far depths of the Sky A glory is rising for me, A royal and roseate dawn Tinting the hills and the sea.

Vonth with its gladness is here. Youth with its gladne's is nere, fime with its treasures untold, Toll with its promise and cheer, Love that will never grow cold, Yet out of this sweetness and warmth, I fade, and I follow afar A voice that is vague as a dream, A light that is faint as a star.

Mystery waveth her wand Over the knowledge I crave, And the shadow that stayeth her hand Hovereth over a grave.

THE KIDNAPPER HENDRICKS.

His Arrest on Two Charges in Atlanta-He is Committed to Prison in Default

A private letter from Atlanta, received in this city last Saturday, says that Deputy Marshal Hendricks has been indicted upon two charges, of kidnapping and of forgery in altering a bench warrant, and expresses the opinion that he is safe to receive a sentence of about ten years in the penitentiary. We find the following account of the proceedings in court in the Atlanta Sun of Friday:

Yesterday atternoon, at three o'clock, H. W. Yesterday atternoon, at three o'clock, h. w. Hendrioks, the would-be United States deputy marshal, was arraigned before Justice Butt on the charge of false imprisonment and kidnapping. General Garlington, on the part of the prosecution, offered to introduce as testimony the following certificate of the cierk of the United States District Court in South

After some discussion, the court decided it was not admissable, when General Garlington offered as testimony the forged and interined warrant upon which Mr. J. T. Hancock was warrant upon which Mr. J. T. Hancock was arrested, and the order of Judga Erskine discharging Mr. Hancock. The court, upon this evidence, required the prisoner to give bond in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars for his court. in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars for his appearance at the Superior Court. The prisoner then passed out of the room to secure bondsmen, when he was arrested by a deputy sheriff on a bench warrant from the Superior Court, on a charge of fairs impressed. deputy sheriff on a bench warrant from the Superior Court, on a charge of false imprison-ment and altering a bench warrant. Hen-dricks showed a disposition to resist this process, by telling the officer to get out of his way—he had nothing to do with him; but he was promptly arrested. At la-t accounts, he had falled to give bond in either case. Judge Hopkins required a bond of four thousand dollars, which Mr. Hendricks has failed to rive. He was committed to prison last night

AIKEN, May 18.

The new County of Aiken is destined to be the scene of hot political conflict this fall as the election for county and legislative officers approaches. At present, however, there is no excitement, excepting about the position of State senator. Among those spoken of are State senator. Among those spoken of are Arnim, creator of the county, Henry Sparnick, editor of the Alken Tribune; Captain Allen, a Cons-rvative, and John Wooley, late treasurer of Edgefield County, now mayor of Edgefield Courthouse. There are other aspirants, but their chances are so slight that it is rants, but their chances are so slight that it is needless to mention their names. Arnim claims the place as a right which none should dare dispute; but he will have hard work in making his claim good. It is understood that Mr. Sparnick is willing to withdraw in favor of any one who will secure his election as clerk of court, or to some other good office. In anticipation of some good crumbs that may fall from the political table, quite a number of disappointed office-seekers from other quarters have settled in Alken. Among them ers have settled in Alken. Among them Messrs. Jones and Brayton, the former district judge under Bullock, and the latter clerk court of Augusta under Radical

THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS. Pickens.

The Sentinel says: "The hot dry days for the last few weeks has given the farmers an excellent opportunity to work their core and clean it of grass. We have heard some com-pleted about a had stand of cotton, but genut a bad stand of cotion, but generally the stand is very good. Wheat is promising; yet we hear that in some parts of the the rust has already made its appear ance, and if it becomes general this early in the season we may expect a short crop. Oats, without rain very soon, will be a complete

Falrfield.

The Winnsboro' News says: "We learn from friends from the southern and southwestern portions of our county that their neighborhoods were visited on Wednesday alternoon and night by a severe rain storm, accompanied with considerable hail. Their crops were much damaged, and in some instances entirely destroyed. The width of the storm is said to have been four miles."

THE CELEBRATED GERMAN SOOTHING

CORDIAL, FOR INFANTS TEETHING. CORDIAL, FOR INFANTS TEETHING.

This is the best Medicine for Infants and young Children ever offered to the rubble. It is carefully prepared form the best Drugs according to a prescription fornished by a distinguish-d German Physician of large and successful practice, and has been tried and approved by many of our best physicians. It is specially adapted to the diseases located to childhood during the trying best physicians. It is specially adapted to the diseases incident to childhood during the trying period of Teething and recommends itself for the cure of Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colle, Griping in the Bowels, Summer Complaint, &c. It contains no Anodyne or other injurious Drug, and should, therefore, be preferred to the Soothing Syfups that now flood the market, which are known to contain Opium, and are, there ore, more or less injurious. Thousands of children are murdered anunally by Soothing Syrups; in some cases, this fact has been published in the newspapers, where the phy-ician in attendance so stated in his death certificate. In the numerous other cases, where it is innocents are murdered by this modern Herod of the Nursery, the cause is indict to a thousand other causes. Deal but the right one.

Mothers, bear this in mind, and use the German Soothing Cordial, which is safe, efficient and satisfactory. Do not fail to try a bottle at once!

The Soothing Cordial is also an excellent Tonic, atmirably adapted in cases of Debility—giving tone to the system, recuperating the strength, and restoring he appetite.
